

UPPER TRANS SPRING TERM CURRICULUM

ENGLISH

- Reading and writing stories in familiar settings – Katie Morag Stories
- Phonics for reading and spelling – contractions, or, aw, aught, ought, oor, tion, sion
- Grammar – contractions, speech marks, question marks, exclamation marks, descriptive language, conjunctions and clauses within sentences.
- Cursive handwriting
- Comprehension using Katie Morag stories

SCIENCE

- Materials and their properties
- Investigations using fair testing into the properties of materials such as absorbency, flexibility, strength, water-proofing.
- Designing a bridge for the Isle of Struay

COMPUTING

- Touch typing
- Word Processing
- Creating pictures
- Saving and printing work
- Research using the web.

ART AND DT

- Modelling clay sheep
- Designing and weaving tartan,
- Using watercolour to create landscapes
- Baking biscuits

GEOGRAPHY

- Locating the UK and other islands using Google Earth.
- Living on an island; jobs, transport, leisure.
- Contrasting life on a Scottish island with life in Guildford
- Human and physical features on Struay contrasted with other locations and islands.
- Finding out about and celebrating Scottish traditions

MATHS

- Place value
- Ordinal numbers
- Addition and subtraction using a variety of strategies
- Money including finding change
- Fractions
- Multiplication arrays, lots of, and tables

RE

- Epiphany
- Jesus and His Miracles
 - The Curing of the Ten Lepers
 - The Feeding of the 5,000
 - Jairus's Daughter

